

R.O. Hardin Dress Code

The following are guidelines for the most frequently asked questions from parents and students regarding the dress code at R.O. Hardin. Our school policy is in keeping with the Hollister School Board Policy Regarding Student Dress and Grooming. Should you wish to look at the policy in its entirety please request a copy in our school office or visit the district website: hesd.org.

General	Any other piece of clothing or personal item that is threatening, vulgar, provocative or displays profanity, racial slurs or sexually explicit images or is disruptive to the educational process is not permitted.

Please remember that it is the parents' responsibility to make sure that their children are dressed appropriately. Should it come to our attention that a student is in violation of the dress code we will ask them to modify their attire to satisfy the Hollister School District Dress Code, provide a replacement piece of clothing or call home to request a change of clothes.

Any other attire determined by the administration or staff to be associated with hate, violence, racism, indecency, or gangs that threatens campus harmony may result in disciplinary action against the student. The final decision as to whether a student's dress is in alignment with the spirit and intent of the policy and therefore appropriate shall be made by school administration. Violations may result in parent notification and a warning and class suspension or detention hours may be assigned.
